Around the Atomic Age League

While League Champion Gabe "Little Terror" Matthews continues to headline the Atomic Age League and Arsenal seems determined to bulldoze anyone standing in his path, there are plenty of heroes quietly writing interesting stories of their own.

One of the best comeback stories belongs to Herman Munster. Longtime fans haven't forgotten that Herman once ruled the AAL as World Champion, looking every bit the unstoppable monster. Then came the night everyone still laughs about, even if Herman doesn't. During a title defense, Grandpa Munster attempted to "help" from ringside. Instead, Grandpa's good intentions turned into what fans now call the Hamburger Helper Incident, leaving Herman flattened in the confusion and costing him the championship. The loss sent Herman into a long slide down the rankings, but lately the old Herman has begun to resurface. A memorable Bare Knuckles Brawl victory over Arsenal reminded everyone what the former champion is capable of, even though Gabe Matthews managed to halt Herman's recent championship bids.

The science-fiction heroes continue to hold their own as well. Buck Rogers and Hawk of Throm remain Television Tag Team Champions, and Buck has continued battling top competition despite recent losses to Arsenal and West Coast Champion "Galactic Gold" Gary Vega. Buck may not win every outing, but few competitors display more determination, and the decorated adventurer remains one of the league's most respected heroes.

At the very top of the rankings sits Johnny "Torch" Storm, whose exciting style continues making him one of the league's biggest attractions. Storm remains the highest-ranked active hero after another outstanding month, highlighted by a victory over "The Crippler" Conrad Bain before falling just short against Gabe Matthews in a thrilling non-title main event. Along with Ben "The Thing" Grimm and Reed "Mr. Fantastic" Richards, the Fantastic Four continue proving that teamwork and heroism still have a place in the Atomic Age League.

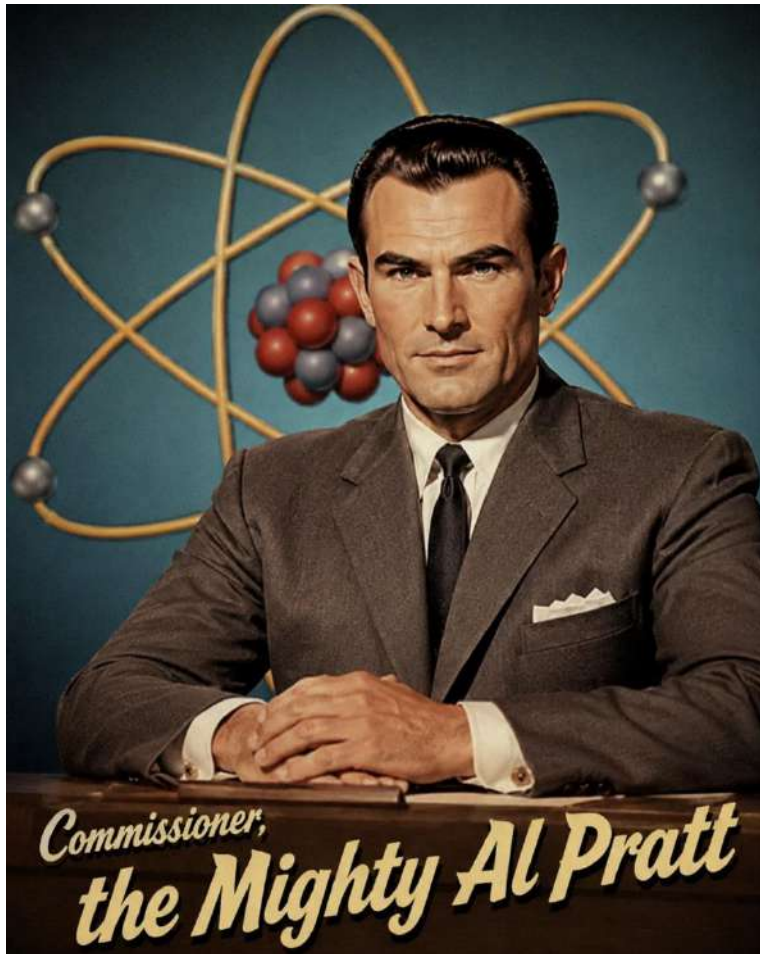

Lower in the rankings, several fan favorites are beginning to attract attention for reasons beyond their win-loss records. The Candy Kid finally picked up a satisfying steel cage victory over The Christmas Kid with the Rock Candy Stunner, giving the youngster something to build on despite later running into Arsenal.

Don't count out "The IWA Wrestler" Bud Hlavin, either. Bud has accepted every challenge placed in front of him, surviving a wild TLC encounter with Maury Povich before later teaming with "The Man" Chuck Norris for an impressive tag team victory. Norris has also started showing signs of life after earning a hard-fought singles win over Jim Rockford. Neither man is near championship contention just yet, but both continue earning respect the old-fashioned way, by answering every challenge.

Then there's "Battlin'" Bob White, who may occupy the final active spot in the rankings, but certainly not the final spot in the hearts of AAL fans. Bob has drawn the unenviable task of facing elite competition like Johnny "Torch" Storm and Arsenal, yet he keeps showing up, lacing up his boots, and giving an honest effort every night. Every territory has wrestlers who become favorites because of their grit rather than their trophies, and "Battlin'" Bob fits that description perfectly.

The Atomic Age League has always been built on colorful heroes, perseverance, and second chances. If the past month has proven anything, it's that today's undercard story can become tomorrow's headline. Don't be surprised if one of these familiar faces gives the fans another reason to cheer before the summer is over.

As we close another edition of From Headquarters, I can assure you that the gears are turning behind the scenes here at Atomic City. Discussions continue with several neighboring promotions regarding future cross-promotional supercards, giving Atomic Age League stars the opportunity to test themselves against some of the finest competitors in professional wrestling. There have also been productive talks concerning the future of the regional championships, and while nothing is official just yet, don't be surprised if some exciting announcements arrive in the coming months.

The roster here in Atomic City continues to grow as well. The latest acquisition is none other than The Red Ghost. The crafty Soviet has arrived with an agenda all his own, and if history has taught us anything, trouble is never far behind when the Red Ghost appears. One thing is certain, he's bound to become a thorn in the heel of the First Family of the Atomic Age League, and I have little doubt that sparks will fly before this story reaches its conclusion.

Until next time, keep your Geiger counters calibrated, your fallout shelters stocked, and remember... the future isn't just coming, it's splitting the atom right here in Atomic City!

MARVEL BULLPEN BULLETINS!

FACE FRONT! Here's a whole kaboodle of news and gossip straight from your bullpen to you!

BIG NEWS! An old favorite of yours, Jolly JOE SINNOTT has rejoined our mighty Marvel team! He'll be inking the F.F. regularly, working on "Agent of Shield," and doing as many other features as we can straddle him with! (Remember his great inking job on F.F. #5? Dyed-in-the-wool Marvelites are still drooling over it!)

Everybody's favorite guessing game these days is trying to figure out the real identity of the "Sub-Mariner's" powerful penciller, ADAM AUSTIN! As most of you have guessed, Adam Austin is only a nom de plume, and one of these days we'll reveal his real name to you—if we don't forget it before then!

Did you know that our bullpen ramrod, Smilin' STAN LEE, also authors MONSTERS UNLIMITED as well as YOU DON'T SAY! Both are slick paper photo-gag magazines, and Stan the Man seems to have the magic touch—both of those humor sensations seem to sell out as fast as our own Marvel masterpieces—and that's sayin' something!

Everybody's been clamoring for a sample of JACK (King) KIRBY'S inking as well as his penciling. So, if you'll remind us next spring, we'll try to get him to pencil and ink a special pin-up page for one of next year's Annals! Of course, it'll mean our buying him a brush, but no sacrifice is too great to make for you Marvel madmen!

How do you like the layout of this page, gang? Pretty jazzy, eh? Any comments, suggestions or (uh) criticisms? Grab a sheet of your swingin' stationery and let us know! We're waiting to hear from you!

CAN YOU GUESS WHAT'S IN THIS MYSTERIOUS MAILING TUBE?

It's our next Marvel mail order bombshell! You've been demanding it for months, so we're frantically producing a zillion of 'em right now! Next ish we'll let the cat out of the bag and clue you in, but till then send us your guesses, and we'll try to remember you when our next no-prize academy award time rolls around! 'Nuff said!

SUSPENSE #72: The most unexpected villain of all poses a daringly different threat to Iron Man, while Captain America faces the macabre menace of "The Sleeper"!

ASTONISH #74: The surprise of the season! Why does Namor give up his quest? And, wait'll you see what happens to the Leader when the Hulk returns to earth!

SGT. FURY #24: This is the one you've been waiting for! The Howlers fly to the U.S.A. for a furlough—but they get a lot more than they bargained for! Sensational!

A MARVEL MASTERWORK PiN-UP

THE THING

SNEAK ATTACK: The parking lot erupted into chaos as Rhino charged from out of nowhere, driving Ben "The Thing" Grimm through the side of a steel dumpster with a sickening crash that echoed across the arena. Grimm collapsed in a heap of twisted metal and garbage, unable to answer the officials shouting his name. Rhino sneered at the fallen powerhouse, wiped a smear of rust from his shoulder, and growled,

"So that's the legendary Thing? Hah, I'm not impressed... all I see is yesterday's trash."

“This is it! The shot heard around the Atomic Age League – I’ve found the right tag team partner that’s going to going to put us on the AAL tag team map! “The IWA Wrestler” Bud Hlavin and Skull Murphy are going to dominate the tag team division!”
